Just ok. I think this book is a tad overrated according to the reviews it seemed like it was the greatest book ever but it was just alright, kind of a collection of thoughts and prose like poems not really my thing. I wouldn't recommend if you like legitimate poetry but that is my opinion. However this writer shows potential and might be interesting to see another book.

If your are trying to heal from a terrible phase on your life...

By eugenia garcia

The way each poem was written, you can barely see in your mind how painfully it is to be on your own, dealing with the pain all alone and no one to call for help because its 3am. It is very emotional to read. It brought back memories than i have been through for the past years of my life. That tight feeling in my throat again, i felt it while reading. It is a collection of very wonderful poems. Surely you'll love it.

That's just how life is, you feel pain and then you heal.

By kath67

I really like this book. It brings back all the heartbreaks and emotional phase that i have been through for the past year and months. My 2014 was a bit challenging year for me. i felt so many heartaches and emotional break downs and this book made it all came back and i realize how strong i am now. That's just how life is, you feel pain and then you heal.
