About the Author

Commander James Bondage is a retired attorney, with a Master's Degree in European History. His courtroom experiences account for the setting of the "By Judicial Decree" books, and his background in military history helped with the details of the "Cadet" series of books. He is also an avid chess-player, golfer and life-long science fiction addict. He has worked in movies and television as a background actor, but perhaps he is the kiss of death for television shows: he has been in three of them, all of which have been cancelled before completing the first season (including the now infamous "Do No Harm", which only aired twice before getting the axe).

BY JUDICIAL DECREE BY COMMANDER JAMES BONDAGE PDF

Elenora was beautiful, with an air of innocence about her. Olivia was a leading socialite, wife of an apparently successful businessman, and determined to be at the very top of County society. Instead, both young women are arrested and are to be sold at the local auction. Elenora will undoubtedly fetch a very high price, but Olivia's attitude makes it clear that she is going to be difficult and will not adapt to her new role easily.

Quentin Scales, the best buying agent in the County, is certain that his employer will want both of them, even if he has to pay the highest price ever seen at auction in order to acquire Elenora.

Imagine a world where debt could mean permanent servitude, where a debtor or anyone associated with him could receive a life sentence for no crime other than being connected with someone who owed money he or she would never be able to pay. And it was not just servitude. Those who were made to serve had no rights whatsoever. They could be used or punished in any way the owner desired, and no one would care. There were no laws to protect them. As the auctioneer announced, they were "legal for all purposes".

Great

By meszape

I really liked the domination in this story. Great writting. If you like bdsm, than you should really read this story

Hard core BDSM at its best!

By Bella Swann Erotica

Wow! This is hard core BDSM at its best. It is not for those who prefer more lighthearted BDSM. The story takes place in an alternate society where women are sold into slavery because of debt and the buyers are allowed to do whatever they want to these women. There are two women who are in this story - one of them is a very stuck-up, bitchy society blonde named Olivia Addison. She is broken completely and very harshly by her new master Caine. The second woman is a sweet, red-headed innocent named Elenora who is also broken by her new master although she comes to enjoy it a lot more than Olivia ever seems to. This is hard core BDSM but very hot so if you are a fan of this type of erotica, you will definitely love this book.

Harsh, non-con, hot!

By AlexJouJou

If you enjoy non-consent erotica then this is a good one to pick up. It has hot sex scene's that are very harsh and some pretty hardcore pain. Although it is not as well described as I like my erotica (in other words it is more "he did this, she did that, a little dialogue, then done" -- rather than a more extended drawn out scene where you get into the character's head really well and the parts of described in vivid detail including what it feels like) it still satisfies. This is not romance - it's really PWP non consent. If that's your thing - I can recommend this author's works. They are a little short for the price but in general satisfy.
