It started with an accidental click...but where will it end?

Desperate to turn in a paper, Adam borrows his roommate's computer and mistakenly opens a folder that contains Josh's collection of porn. Adam had no idea that his jock roommate was gay—and into leashes, paddles and domination. And Adam, an inexperienced virgin who's only ever kissed one guy, is surprised to find himself curious about submitting...

Josh can't believe that his roommate discovered his spank bank—and he can't believe that Adam is so turned on by the thought of giving up control to someone. Taking a chance, he offers to look through the photos with Adam...and maybe try acting some of them out.

Night after night, the boys delve into their darkest fantasies of domination and submission. And as lust and experimentation grow into the promise of something deeper, Adam must decide if he's brave enough to tell Josh how he feels.

Worth more than I paid for it

By aud

Despite the silly title, I think this might be the best, sweetest, and hottest erotic short story I have ever read in this genre.

Loved this smokin' debut!

Excuse me while I hose myself down after reading that one... DAMN that was HOT!!

This book was the hottest thing I've read since the Market Garden books and I'm rounding up to 5 stars because it happened to touch upon many of my personal kinks. 5 stars for excellent erotica. Smoking stuff over here Lana McGregor!! Bravo for a FAB debut book.

This book is all about the sex. Don't expect an epic romance or much action outside the bedroom. However, the sex here is so well done. If you are into virgins and dominance with a side of sweetness (I AM!!) than you will love this book. It reminded me of a steamier version of Anne Tenino's books, which is a huge complement coming from me because I am a Tenino fan-girl. It is low angst and high heat (did I mention that?!?) and worth staying up until 2:30 am to finish.

I will most certainly be reading more by this author in the future. Thank you for creating a very... distracting novella.

Surprisingly hot read! Impressed.

By Doris

Despite very mild BDSM and experimentation this book is really about two guys figuring out what they like sexually. The innocence of Adam and Josh was refreshing. Most books today seem to always have a more experienced partner teaching their new lover about sex, even shaping the tastes of the less experienced party. Adam and Josh made discoveries together and communicated openly about what they wanted to try.

One of the reviews mentioned degradation which I'm not a fan of reading, but don't worry there was nothing too crazy in the dialog. In fact Adam and Josh 's interactions were quite sexy if you are into reading male/male.

My only teeny tiny complaint is that the pornography was limited to photos which isn't very realistic with the amount of videos available, however that may have been intentional since Adam and Josh were inexperienced virgins prior to finding each other.

A quick, fun read.
