Perfect Graduation Gift!

By Sue Scheff

I simply loved this book! Everything your child--soon to be adult, needs to know about being on their own. This book surprised me with all the things it had. I am sure my adult kids aren't aware of half of this things in this book. I wish it was around when they moved out, they certainly could have used it. When your teen is graduating from high school or college or simply moving out on their own, this book covers everything you can think of - from self-defense, to sewing, to getting into the habit of making lists. Even learning how to take public transportation if they need to in a crunch.... This is another fun book that makes a great gift idea.

Gasnoel

I got this book for my 18yr old college bound daughter, and she loved it. We loved the title. It makes this book enticing for the young adult to read as well. I feel better knowing that my daughter will be leaving with a "common sense to living on your own manual." We have owners manuals for cars, why not one for our kids about to leave the nest? These books are indestructible as well. College adults are as destructive, if not more, than their younger counterparts. Great graduation gift...along with a check of course. ;)
