I am not finished yet with the book, but I love it. Its different from most of the other highlander books that I've read. The plot is different and characters are a bit different. I recommend that everyone that loves to read about this period of time in Scotland and England to read these books of Victoria Roberts as they are really excellent reading.

Great fun!

By Booklover

Great fun!! Light repartee between main characters; well-written dialogue and enough description to feel like you were actually in the Highlands. Some authors just don't give you much setting, but Roberts does a good job.
