The Apostle Islands Region of Lake Superior, including Port Wing, Herbster and Cornucopia to the West, the Islands in-between, Chequamegon Bay to the South, and East to Little Girl's Point-Saxon Harbor is a small part of the Lake with a big history of its own...on the ice. Spending time on the ice of the largest freshwater lake on the planet provides sport, adventures, and sometimes deadly experiences. This book takes the ice experiences guys and gals have had and documents them in their own words as much as possible to convey to the reader not only an appreciation for the stories but a flavor for the area culture they reflect.. Some are interesting with history and experiences exclusive to the area. Others are amusing and funny..a few hilarious! And many more are simply amazing! They are all real stories told by real people!
