whens book 3 coming out!?

By Hello my name is Lisa and I have a reading addiction. bahaha

This book is great. Even though its the second book i think it could easily be the first of the series. Also you don't have to read the first book to understand what this one is about.

The book is exciting and I even caught myself smiling a few times. There are a few editing errors where it says he instead of she or something on those lines but it doesn't take but a second to figure out what its suppose to say.. there are other errors though that make you do a double take. Like when they are telling her about the farm she asks about the Termaines that took them in with out them telling her their names. Then there is a scene where Glenna locks Joe out of the bathroom he goes and uses the other bathroom to shower and then it says Leland pauses outside the bathroom and listens to them talk... ok so which it is? haha.

Something's don't seem to match the first book. In the first book they don't know that they share a mate except that it had also happened to Joe and Leland. In this book they said their parents had the same problem and it tore them apart and got them killed. Nothing except that they were killed was in the first book.

Dominant Shifters GRRREAT!.

By Dandy Diz

I usually don't read this type of Erotica but being a fan of Leah Brooke I took a chance years ago and read Alphas Mate and loved it. Of course I read the first Panthers book hoping it would be like Alphas but while I liked it it was just ok rating it 3 stars. So when this book came out a month ago I had my doubts if I wanted to even try again. However, after reading the sample for Panthers' Pride I was hooked.

Glenna has just dropped her sister off at the airport and is heading home when she is blinded by the sun off an oncoming truck windshield running off the road. Before she knows what's happening the truck is back and two huge, gorgeous men are approaching and taking charge. Leland and Joe are immediately taken by Glenna. While Joe checks her over Leland handles the car. OK he handles Glenna as well. Give me an overbearing dominant Panther any day. Yum.

Jo and Leland orphaned as young children are the Alphas of their back of list panther boys (now men). They protect their privacy at all costs and are really confused by their attraction to Glenna. She doesn't understand but two men are attracted to her and she is ready to embrace whatever this is for as long as it lasts unfortunately circumstances get in the way and she runs. So what's a panther to do?

Chase, of course and claim their woman.

Fun read.

Curl up with a good story

By R. Evans

The first book was all right. This one was better. Finding true love and then keeping it is a hard thing to do. There was tension between the two men and fighting "she's mine," "no she's mine" that sort of thing that was a little irritating at first. But the men worked everything out.

But she was too upset to stay especially when she found out something and when she did she ran. Her men found her and saved her life literally. But the entire pack accepted her upon their return especially when they all saw the condition that she was in. Luckily when the bad guy tries to kidnap her she literally screams the house down and they all come to the rescue. Her men and some shifting into panthers.

The story is slowly coming together about their past lives and it leaves you wanting more of the story. Looking forward to more of it coming out in future books.
