Great Book!!!!!!!!!!

By A Customer

This was one of the best books that I have ever read. I had to read this book for a school project and I did not really want to do this book but it was that or some [...]book. So I chose this book. This book is about a girl named Marcy who has the most horrible life that anyone could imagine. Her father is abusive, she is a dork at school. She has had quite a few acne attacks. She is very smart but she hates school because of gym class because she is very fat and does not like changing into her gym suit. The only good thing is that her best friend is the most popular girl in school but only because their moms are on the PTA together. That all changes when she gets a teacher named Ms. Finney who makes school fun and makes life better for Marcy. One day Ms. Finney got suspended for not saying the Pledge of Allegiance but only because the principal and everyone else did not like her teaching methods. They despised her. Because she was weird. The rest is all history and you will have to buy the book from Amazon.com because they have a great price. P.S. The old cover was way better. Where she was sitting on the green porch. Because the book did not have anything to do with a cat. So that was a stupid cover idea.

A Teenager's Real Life Situation

By A Customer

THE CAT ATE MY GYMSUIT By Paula Danziger

I had just read this book a year ago, when I was in seventh grade. I really liked "The Cat ate my Gym suit". I thought it dealt with a lot of real life problems that most teenagers deal with. It was about a girl in seventh grade named Marcy, who was overweight, had a lot of acne, and had barely any friends. In gym class she made up excuses why she couldn't play gym, because she didn't want to change in front of everyone else, because she thought she was fat. She also hated her dad because he always made fun of her, and makes her mom cry. Until one day at school, their class had a new teacher who turned Marcy's life around. But the other teachers didn't like her teaching method and try to fire her. The students try to fight to save her. This was a really good book. I would read it again if I could. I would also recommend this book to be in classrooms everywhere!

One of the best books I've read!

By A Customer

"The Cat ate my gym suit" by Paula Danziger, was a fabulous book. The book was full of laughter and real events happening today in America. Some parts of the book were a bit exaggerated but very true. In the story, a young girl named Marcy Lewis feared she was too fat and ugly to get a boyfriend went on a long roller coaster of events that changed her life. Marcy was having problems at home, her dad verbally abused both her and her brother. Marcy's mother never defended her in fear that her and her husband may end up in a fight, although she did not approve of this type of behavior. The only people Marcy felt she had left that she could talk to was her friend Nancy and her younger brother Stuart, until Ms. Barbra Finney, her new English teacher came along. Ms. Finney helped Marcy realize that her life has a purpose and that she shouldn't be afraid to express herself around others. Marcy's new self-confidence not only landed her a boyfriend, named Noel but also a date to the dance. Then when Marcy thought her new found life at school was headed on the right track, the unthinkable happened Ms. Finney was suspended from her work. When Marcy decided to stand up for Ms. Finney her mom was behind her all the way but of course her father was not, which caused friction at home. Marcy too was suspended. Things didn't turn out the way Marcy or Ms. Finney would have like them to, but in the end Marcy used her new knowledge to keep her head up high and not be ashamed, and so she did without Ms. Finney. I would recommend this book to a girl my age most definitely or even a teacher whose up for a good laugh and some sad moments. Over all this was an awesome book and i rate it 4 stars!
