THEATER DIRECTING: ART, ETHICS, CREATIVITY (STUDIES IN THEATRE ARTS) BY KAZIMIERZ BRAUN PDF

A presentation of a directorial style and a method of teaching directing. First it discusses the directorial studies, training and steps of a directorial career in Poland. Then it explains and describes a method of teaching and exercising a "creative directed" - based on imagination, oriented towards the unknown, asking fundamental existential, philosophical, moral and political questions, as opposed to "functional directing" which focuses on the technical, practical and managerial aspects of directing.

One of the Best Books Available on the Subject of Directing

By Meron

This is by far one of the best books available on the subject of directing and deserves a significantly wider audience.

This book transmits a very sophisticated methodology of stage directing along with a detailed documentation of effective director training.

While its focused is on directing, theatre artists of all disciplines would benefit from the material in this book. Dr Braun's script analysis methodology would be especially interesting to dramaturgs, and it can be a life-changing book for a young director.

wonderful and knowledgeable book!

By John Knowles

The book is written with great knowledge of the theatre, it's beauty and uniqueness. Kazimierz Braun is an expert on the theatre, also a great writer. He writes with talent, understanding and the book captures the reader's mind immediately and keeps his interest undiminished throughout the pages. It is one of the most interesting and knowledgeable book I have read recently.
